

World Travel Holdings Charters Celebrity's Newest Class of Ship

The Celebrity Solstice

WOBURN, MA August 1, 2008 - WTH's family of brands will offer an exclusive opportunity for their premium clients to experience a taste of the Solstice for a two night sailing from Ft. Lauderdale on November 21st. This 2-night sailing preview will showcase Celebrity Cruises' newest and most innovative product and first new ship built in 5 years.

"Through our strategic partnership with Celebrity Cruises we are excited to build on our tradition of offering uniquely positioned product and services to meet the demands of every kind of leisure traveler through all the world-class of brands within the WTH portfolio," says David Crooks, VP Cruise for WTH.

Prices will begin at $329 per person for a Deluxe Ocean View Stateroom with Veranda.